

THE DEVIL'S
PORRIDGE
MUSEUM

1940s Kitchen/Rationing/Dig for Victory Garden

Primary / up to P7

Questions

A World War 2 poster to encourage people to grow their own food.

1940s Kitchen/Rationing/Dig for Victory Garden

Primary / up to P7

Questions

A poster about Potato Pete and Dr Carrot. The two characters were created to promote eating vegetables.

1) Why were there food shortages in Britain during World War Two?

2) What was the name of the system the government used to share out food and supplies?

3) What vegetables were Plentiful? (Plentiful means there were lots of them)

1940s Kitchen/Rationing/Dig for Victory Garden

Primary / up to P7

Questions

4) When did rationing start?

5) When did rationing end?

6) What did people grow in their Dig for Victory gardens?

7) What animals did people keep and what produce or products did people gain from these animals?

8) What were the main items rationed?

Which food would you miss the most if it was rationed? _____

Why would you miss it? _____

Draw it here.